

CHRISTIAN VOCATION in WARTIME

Personal observations on President Bush's visit to my university

WHO

Dr Ron Wells

WHERE

Ramsey House, 8 Kelburn Parade

WHEN

5.30pm, Wednesday 26 April

REGISTRATION

No pre-registration necessary. Free entry

MORE INFO

anglican@vuw.ac.nz or call 463 5499

Dr Ronald A Wells is Professor of History at Calvin College in Michigan, USA. He is the 'Calvin Lecturer' for 2005-06, a role that takes him around the world delivering lectures in his specialist field. Dr Wells is author of many books and articles, including History Through the Eyes of Faith, which has been translated into French and Korean. In recent years he has been interested in the history of political and religious reconciliation, in both Northern Ireland and the United States. His recent books are: People Behind the Peace: Community and Reconciliation in Northern Ireland and Friendship Towards Peace in Belfast: The Journey of Ken Newell and Gerry Reynolds.

