

New Historians Postgraduate Conference

Victoria University of Wellington

31 August to 1 September 2009

Hunter Building Lecture Theatres 119 & 220, Kelburn Parade

Keynote speakers

Professor Giselle Byrnes

The University of Waikato

Associate Professor Jim McAloon

Victoria University of Wellington

Topics include

Adulterous women as pleasure seekers in New Zealand divorce cases, 1898 – 1947

Tabs of identity: Reading historical cartoons

The politics of history and treaty settlement negotiations in New Zealand/Aotearoa, Canada and Australia

Half-full or half-empty? The historiography of Maori/Pakeha Hybridity

Maori oral history research, 1936 – 1971

Infanticide, gender and legislative responses in nineteenth and twentieth century New Zealand

With greedy ears: Historical investigations in Melville's Moby-Dick.

Hosted by the History Programme

For further details, see www.victoria.ac.nz/history

Sponsored by the School of History, Philosophy, Political Science & International Relations and the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Victoria University of Wellington