The Wellington Corpus of Spoken New Zealand English

Agreement on use of the Spoken corpus

The WSC will only be made available to bona fide researchers and is subject to the following conditions. Persons or institutions ordering copies of the material must agree to these restrictions by signing this written contract before a copy is issued. Failure to comply with these conditions will result in an institution being banned from further use of the corpus.

1. Every effort will be made to ensure that any information and data from the corpus is safeguarded from theft, damage, loss or misuse.
2. Information in the corpus must remain confidential to the researcher.
3. Any data or materials released must not be copied, duplicated or published in any form or manner whatsoever, either in whole or in part, without prior permission from the Manager of the Wellington Corpus of Spoken New Zealand English.
4. The Wellington Corpus of Spoken New Zealand English must be acknowledged in any publication(s) resulting from research on the corpus.
5. An offprint or copy of any publication(s) resulting from research based on the corpus must be sent to the Manager of the Wellington Corpus of Spoken New Zealand English. This includes papers appearing in journals, conference proceedings, working papers, and books.
6. Public broadcast (including seminars, conferences, etc) of material is prohibited, unless specific permission has been requested and given by the Manager of the WSC.

I have read and understood Conditions 1 to 6 under which I will make use of the Corpus,

The Wellington Corpus of Written New Zealand English

Agreement on use of the Written corpus

I understand that the material in the Wellington Corpus of Written New Zealand English is copyright to the individual authors. I agree to abide by the copyright agreement which was made with the individual authors and which is reproduced below.

The following conditions, which were explicitly states for copyright holders, must be strictly observed:

- 1) No copies of the Wellington corpus material, or any part of the Wellington Corpus material, will be distributed under any circumstances without the written permission of the Department of Linguistics at Victoria University of Wellington or, acting on its behalf, ICAME (The International Computer Archive of Modern English, Bergen).
- 2) Print-outs of the Wellington Corpus material, or parts thereof, will be used only for bona fide research. Holders of copies of the corpus will not be permitted to reproduce texts or parts of texts for any purpose other than scholarly research without obtaining the written permission of the individual copyright holders, as listed in the manual accompanying the corpus.
- 3) Commercial publishers and other non-academic organisations wishing to make use of part or all of the corpus or a print-out thereof will have to obtain permission from all of the individual copyright holders involved.
- 4) Persons or institutions ordering copies of the material will be required to subscribe to these restrictions by signing a written contract before a copy is issued.
- 5) A careful record will be kept of all those who receive a copy of the corpus.
