

The New Zealand Centre of International Economic Law invites you to a public lecture:

“Comparative Perspectives on Public International Law and International Trade Law”

Colin Picker

The Daniel L. Brenner/UMKC Scholar & Professor of Law at the University of Missouri – Kansas City School of Law.

Professor Picker received his A.B., summa cum laude, from Bowdoin College, Maine, and his Juris Doctor from Yale Law School. Following law school, he clerked for the Honorable José A. Cabranes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. After his clerkship Professor Picker was an associate attorney in the International Group of the Washington, D.C., law firm of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, where his practice included international litigation, international transactions and congressional policy work. He joined the UMKC law faculty in 2000 and became a full professor in 2007. In July and August 2009 he will be a Visiting Fellow at the University of New South Wales Law School.

Professor Picker publishes widely in the areas of International Trade/International Economic Law, International Law and Comparative Law. His work has featured in numerous journals, including the Yale Journal of International Law, the University of Pennsylvania Journal of International Economic Law, and the Tulane Law Review. He is a co-author of COMPARATIVE LEGAL TRADITIONS: TEXTS, MATERIALS AND CASES ON WESTERN LAW, 3rd Edition (Thomson West), and chief-editor of recent international economic law books.

Professor Picker is the co-chair of the Founding Committee of the Society of International Economic Law, a new global academic organization for international economic law. He has also been active in the International Economic Law Group of the American Society of International Law (Co-Chair 2005-2007), and in the American Society of Comparative Law (Chair of the Young Comparativists Committee), and is a member of the Board of Editors of the American Journal of Comparative Law. He is also a Salzburg Seminar Fellow. Professor Picker's courses have included: U.S. Constitutional Law (Powers and Structures); International Law; International Business Transactions; Comparative Law; International Trade and Finance; International Human Rights; and Conflicts of Law (Private International Law).

12:30pm, Friday 14 August 2009

Moot Room (Rm 340), Government Buildings, Pipitea Campus
15 Lambton Quay, Wellington

Public Lectures are free of charge. No RSVPs are required.