

The New Zealand Centre of International Economic Law

presents

How New Zealand Negotiates Trade Agreements

Thursday 11 June, 2009

Lecture Theatre 1, Law Faculty, Victoria University of Wellington
Old Government Buildings, 15 Lambton Quay, Wellington

About the Symposium

This half-day symposium (from 9.00am- 12.30pm and then lunch) will provide a unique opportunity to hear how New Zealand negotiates its trade agreements from the officials who do the negotiating. Representatives from MFAT, Customs, MAF and MED (tbc) will discuss procedural and substantive aspects of New Zealand's trade negotiations.

To register please complete the details on the next page.

For all queries please email nzciel@vuw.ac.nz

How New Zealand Negotiates Trade Agreements - Thursday 11 June, 2009

REGISTRATION FORM

Title _____ Name _____

Organisation _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____

Email _____

TYPE OF REGISTRATION (Please circle amount)

Full Time Student (ID required):	Academics	Standard	Please note: Lunch and morning tea are included in the registration fee. Please advise of any dietary requirements.
$25	$50	$75

Dietary Requirements: _____

METHOD OF PAYMENT Please pay by Credit Card or Cheque. Please make cheques out to Victoria University.

___ Visa ___ MasterCard Credit Card Number _____/_____/_____/_____

Expiry Date _____/_____/_____ Total Amount $ _____

Address of Cardholder _____

Phone _____ Signature _____

Please complete this form electronically and email it to law-events@vuw.ac.nz.
Alternatively you can fax it to +64 4 463 6365 or post to The Events Co-ordinator,
C/- New Zealand Centre for Public Law, Victoria University Law School, PO Box 600, Wellington, New Zealand.