

Invites you to an address by:

Dr Anna Gwiazda
Lecturer
Trinity College Dublin

The Issues and the Outcome of the recent presidential Election in Poland: What it means for Poland and Europe

In the recent election Bronislaw Komorowski narrowly defeated Jaroslaw Kaczynski, brother of the late President Lech Kaczynski

Bio: Dr Gwiazda is in New Zealand as a guest of the European Union Centre Network. She is currently teaching Comparative Politics and Democracy and Development at Trinity College, Dublin. She has also taught at Dublin City University. In 2007 Dr Gwiazda was a visiting Fellow at the Australian National University, Canberra. She has held scholarships at universities in Sussex, Florence, Luxembourg, and Budapest. Dr Gwiazda obtained her doctorate at Trinity College, a Masters at the Central European University Budapest, and Bachelor degree from Radom Polytechnic, Poland. She is fluent in English, Italian, and Polish.

NZ Institute of International Affairs is grateful to Victoria University of Wellington for making this address possible

Date & Time: 5.30 pm Wednesday 21 July 2010

Venue: Lecture Theatre 2 Rutherford House, entrance Bunny Street
Pipitea Campus, Victoria University of Wellington

RSVP attendance only email: nziia@vuw.ac.nz Ph 04 463 5356