Course learning objectives (CLOs)

This course aims to introduce you to feminist theory. Students who pass this course should be able to:
1. Display their grasp of the work of key feminist thinkers from different historical periods
2. Distinguish from a variety of feminist theoretical perspectives
3. Apply the theoretical ideas covered to practical and real-life issues
4. Critically evaluate the contributions of social science and psychological approaches to understanding gender identity.

Teaching format

Lectures and tutorials.
Lectures for this course will be given by the course coordinator and guest lecturers from across the university.
Tutorials start in week 3. There are 9 tutorials for this course and students are expected to attend at least 6 of them. This will ensure students have the opportunity to develop a deeper understanding of the core themes explored in the course (see course prescription) and to develop oral communication and teamwork skills through participating in the tutorial exercises. Details about tutorial classes will be available at the first lecture. Enrolment for tutorial classes will be done using the Student Allocator System http://www.victoria.ac.nz/students/study/timetables/tutorial-sign-up

Mandatory course requirements

Students must submit all in-term assignments and assessments (Essay 1 and Essay 2) and sit the final 50-minute Test at the end of the course. In order to demonstrate the achievement of all the Course Learning Objectives you must obtain at least 35% for any assignment (i.e., the essays and examination).

Any student who is concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the MCRs because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the course coordinator as soon as possible.

Workload

The expectations are that students will work 10 hours per point, therefore a 20 point course equates to 200 hours over the trimester. This include scheduled contact time, individual or group study, and work on assessment tasks.

In addition to attending the lectures (24 hours for the trimester) and tutorials (up to 9 hours) students can expect to spend on average, approximately 40-50 hours reading... preparation for the course, 40 hours preparing for Essay 1, 35 hours preparing Essay 2, and 25 hours preparing for the in-class Test.

Assessment

This course is 100% internally assessed and requires three pieces of work (two essays and one in-class test).

Essay 1

Due: 4pm, Friday, 19 August

Write a 2500-3000 word essay on the following question. Draw on two key themes to discuss the contribution to feminist thought of any one theorist covered in this course.

Essay 2

Due: 4pm, Friday, 7 October

For this assignment you are required to write a 2000 word essay. You must write on a different theorist and different topic from your first essay.

A common theme for feminist scholarship has been to show the political significance of matters not traditionally considered political. Drawing on theory covered in this course critically discuss how a feminist scholar would address one of the following issues, with a view to implementing reform or social change: gender identity, work, sex trafficking, sex or race discrimination, poverty, sexual harassment, rape, pornography, multiculturalism, genetic modification, domestic violence, disability, citizenship, or pregnancy.

Marking criteria

Marking criteria for essays and essay writing guides will be posted on Blackboard and discussed in tutorial classes.

In-class test

Due: 4pm, Friday, 14 October (2:10 – 3:00pm)

A guidance statement on the test will be handed out two weeks before the date of the test.

Submission and return of work

Submit a paper copy to the Assignment Box at the SACS Administration Office, Level 9, Murphy Building (to the side of the lifts), by 4:00pm on the due date. Your essay MUST NOT be placed in individual staff pigeonholes, or under staff office doors, or handed to lecturers or tutors. The Assignment Box is cleared at 4:00pm every day. All work is date-stamped, recorded and then handed to the appropriate markers.

Marked assignments not collected in lectures or tutorials can be collected at the Murphy 9th floor reception desk, between 11.00 am and 3.00 pm only from Monday to Friday.
Extensions and penalties

Extensions
Assignments are due on the dates stated. If for some serious reason you don’t think you can get an essay in on time, see your supervisor prior to the due date and discuss the problem. Extensions of time are not permitted except for illness, or bereavements.

Penalties
Late submissions for student assignments in all Sociology and Social Policy undergraduate courses are subject to a penalty. The exact deduction will be calculated on the basis of one half mark per day late for each 10 marks, i.e. 1 mark will be deducted each day for an assignment worth 20% of the total course mark. Note: assessment work will not be accepted for marking more than 7 days after the due date or 7 days after an approved extension date. Work must still, however, be submitted to meet the mandatory course requirements. You are advised to always keep a copy of any work you submit for assessment.

Set texts
There is no set text or book of student notes for this course. All essential and recommended readings will be placed on Blackboard by the Course Coordinator.

Recommended reading
Suggestions for recommended readings will be posted on Blackboard by the Course Coordinator.

Class representative
The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course.

Student feedback
A course evaluation of SACS 202 was undertaken in 2014 and more tutorial classes are now offered due to student request. Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.
