PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

PUBLICATIONS

http://www.nzetc.org/tm/scholarly/tei-Whi032Kota-t1-g1-t5.html

PRESENTATIONS

Macalister, John (2009). The impact of speed reading courses on reading fluency. 7th AsiaTEFL/29th ThaiTESOL International Conference, Bangkok, 7 – 9 August 2009

Macalister, John (2009). “But rimu’s not a Maori word”: The use of te reo Maori in New Zealand English. Invited speaker, He Taonga Te Reo (Maori language week seminar series), Victoria University of Wellington, 29 July 2009

Macalister, John (2008). Emerging voices or linguistic silence?: Examining a New Zealand linguistic landscape. 11th New Zealand Language and Society Conference, Dunedin, 17 – 18 November 2008

Macalister, John (2008). “But there’s no time!”: Addressing systemic constraints on reading for pleasure. Responding to Change: Flexibility in the Delivery of Language Programmes, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology & Payap University, Hong Kong & Chiang Mai, 7 – 11 January 2008

Macalister, John (2007). “If only I had more time”: tackling excuses and making extensive reading happen. Invited speaker, WATESOL, Wellington, 19 September 2007

Macalister, John (2002). Of Weka and Waiata: Familiarity with Borrowings from Te Reo Maori. 7th New Zealand Language and Society Conference, Hamilton, November 2002

Macalister, John (1996). English for a French Medium Programme. English Language Teaching in Cambodia Seminar, Phnom Penh
