ACCY 421: ACCOUNTING RESEARCH METHODOLOGY – INTERPRETIVE AND CRITICAL THEORY
Trimester One 2005

COURSE OUTLINE

Course Content
This course provides students with an introduction to interpretive and critical theory accounting research. It explores the historical development and underpinnings of this research through a discussion of key concepts and issues within the philosophy of knowledge literature. It also illustrates the application of specific research methods used in interpretive and critical theory studies.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course students should have:

- an understanding of interpretive and critical theory accounting research and its place within the broader body of accounting literature;
- the ability to reflect critically on philosophical, theoretical and methodological issues in interpretive and critical theory research;
- a basic grounding in research design issues and the range of methods used in interpretive and critical theory studies; and
- an appreciation of the historical, social and political contexts of accounting research choices.

Assessment

Assessment will be based on the following:

- Research Journal and Class Participation: 35%
- Essay: 30%
- Final Exam: 35%

Mandatory Course Requirements

To pass the course you must complete all items of assessment and obtain a weighted average of 50% across all items.

Research Journal and Class Participation

Each student will be required to keep a research journal, comprising of a set of weekly written assignments (approximately 1-2 pages). These assignments will be handed in on a weekly basis and will form the basis for seminar and Blackboard discussions. You are expected to attend all classes, read assigned materials and participate fully in discussions.

The marks for the research journal and participation will be allocated as follows:

- Research Journal: 25%
- Class Participation: 10%
Essay

30%  Due by 5pm Monday 23 May

Critically discuss the following statement:

“Accounting researchers, like all other contemporary social researchers, must consider the constructed nature of people and reality”. Critically discuss.

Expected length: 5,000 words.

Late Submission

In fairness to other students, work submitted after the deadline will incur a 5% penalty (of the mark obtained) for each day late. Extensions may be granted with no penalty to those who meet the University’s aegrotat rules (e.g. medical certificate, family bereavement).

Required Text & Course Materials

The text for the course is:

Additional readings will also be provided, amounting to approximately one article per week. A fee will be charged for course materials.

General University Policies and Statutes
Students should familiarise themselves with the University's policies and statutes, particularly those regarding assessment and course of study requirements, and formal academic grievance procedures.

Student Conduct and Staff Conduct
The Statute on Student Conduct together with the Policy on Staff Conduct ensure that members of the University community are able to work, learn, study and participate in the academic and social aspects of the University's life in an atmosphere of safety and respect. The Statute on Student Conduct contains information on what conduct is prohibited and what steps can be taken if there is a complaint. For queries about complaint procedures under the Statute on Student Conduct, contact the Facilitator and Disputes Advisor. This Statute is available in the Faculty Student Administration Office or on the website at: www.vuw.ac.nz/policy/StudentConduct.
The policy on Staff Conduct can be found on the VUW website at: www.vuw.ac.nz/policy/StaffConduct.

Academic Grievances
If you have any academic problems with your course you should talk to the tutor or lecturer concerned or, if you are not satisfied with the result of that meeting, see the Head of School or the Associate Dean (Students) of your Faculty. Class representatives are available to assist you with this process. If, after trying the above channels, you are still unsatisfied, formal grievance procedures can be invoked. These are set out in the Academic Grievances Policy which is published on the VUW website: www.vuw.ac.nz/policy/AcademicGrievances.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism
Academic integrity is about honesty – put simply it means no cheating. All members of the University community are responsible for upholding academic integrity, which means staff and students are expected to behave honestly, fairly and with respect for others at all times.

Plagiarism is a form of cheating which undermines academic integrity. Plagiarism is prohibited at Victoria.

The University defines plagiarism as follows:
Plagiarism is presenting someone else’s work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not.

'Someone else’s work’ means anything that is not your own idea, even if it is presented in your own style. It includes material from books, journals or any other printed source, the work of other students or staff, information from the Internet, software programmes and other electronic material, designs and ideas. It also includes the organization or structuring of any such material.

Plagiarism is not worth the risk.
Any enrolled student found guilty of plagiarism will be subject to disciplinary procedures under the Statute on Student Conduct (www.vuw.ac.nz/policy/studentconduct) and may be penalized severely. Consequences of being found guilty of plagiarism can include:
- an oral or written warning
- suspension from class or university
- cancellation of your mark for an assessment or a fail grade for the course.

Find out more about plagiarism and how to avoid it, on the University’s website at: www.vuw.ac.nz/home/studying/plagiarism.html.
Students with Disabilities
The University has a policy of reasonable accommodation of the needs of students with disabilities. The policy aims to give students with disabilities an equal opportunity with all other students to demonstrate their abilities. If you have a disability, impairment or chronic medical condition (temporary, permanent or recurring) that may impact on your ability to participate, learn and/or achieve in lectures and tutorials or in meeting the course requirements, then please contact the Course Coordinator as early in the course as possible. Alternatively you may wish to approach a Student Adviser from Disability Support Services to confidentially discuss your individual needs and the options and support that are available. Disability Support Services are located on Level 1, Robert Stout Building, or phoning 463-6070, email: disability@vuw.ac.nz. The name of your School’s Disability Liaison Person can be obtained from the Administrative Assistant or the School Prospectus.

Student Support
Staff at Victoria want students’ learning experiences at the University to be positive. If your academic progress is causing you concern, please contact the relevant Course Co-ordinator, or Associate Dean who will either help you directly or put you in contact with someone who can.

The Student Services Group is also available to provide a variety of support and services. Find out more at www.vuw.ac.nz/st_services/ or email student-services@vuw.ac.nz.

VUWSA employs two Education Coordinators who deal with academic problems and provide support, advice and advocacy services, as well as organising class representatives and faculty delegates. The Education Office is located on the ground floor, Student Union Building, phone 463 6983 or 463 6984, email education@vuwsa.org.nz.
